A NEW MOVE

Again the sophomores made a move toward the goal of having every frosh wear his beanie when, in their class meeting last Wednesday, they appointed a committee to take charge of this work.

This committee consists of five husky men—and one woman to employ feminine persuasion where force fails. It also becomes the duty of every sophomore to report this committee any case of this high treason exhibited by the frosh.

This move is one worthy of such sages as the sophomore leaders for it shows a trend toward organization. And when we come right down to the facts, it is only organization and team work that will beat the many more green ones now walking on our campus.

It is said that figures don't lie—and statistics show that there are nearly three times as many frosh as sophs.

GOOD PERFORMERS

Our first assembly of the year comes today at one o'clock in college hall, which fact calls for a few words on the subject.

To be successful a college assembly needs two things—a good entertainment and a good audience. One cannot do without the other. It was our privilege a few years ago to see Otis Skinner, the renowned actor of the old school, in a presentation in Los Angeles. It was the opening night and a curtain speech was in order. The old actor made a statement that impressed us at the time and fits the present subject. "You have," he said to the crowded house, "given one of the best performances of an audience I have ever witnessed."

Shall we in Santa Ana college give during the coming year a good performance as an audience? It has always been the general opinion that the show should pull the crowd. Why not go that precedent one better by having a good crowd rightfully demand a good entertainment? Then if we don't get what we want, we will have a right to protest.

'COLLEGE HALL'

Here is an item to keep in mind. Last year a member of the Don staff received the idea of calling room 11, the large assembly hall, by the name of "College Hall".

Introducing the idea first through an editorial, the Don has always worked to put this name into general usage, and now is the time to do it.

"College Hall" gives a collegiate taste to things. It possesses all the necessary qualifications that a much-beloved traditional name should have.

It is the work of all of you royal Dons to correct in no uncertain terms anyone who commits the folly of referring to room 11".

First Assembly In College Hall Today

Football Team To Be Intro- duced; Glenn Will Tell Of Travels

The first assembly of the year, in charge of George Butler, will be held today in College Hall, Room 11, at one o'clock, according to George Tobias, student body president.

During the program the football team will be presented to the student body. Mr. Glenn, member of the junior college faculty, will give an account of his recent trip to Europe. At the close of the assembly, the Women's Athletic Association will hold an election of officers, with Helen Richards, presiding officer.

Second Hand Books Wanted In Y. W. Hut

Second hand text books are still in demand at the Y. W. C. A. Hut, according to Mary Bruner, who is in charge of the regular book sale conducted by the college Y. W. C. A.

All students who have not yet brought books of which they wish to dispose, are asked to bring them to the "Y" Hut as soon as possible. In order to avoid confusion it is further requested that a slip bearing the owner's name and price paid for the book be attached to each book.

The sale will continue as long as the supply of text books equals the demand.

Another sale will be held at the beginning of the second semester. Books to be used next semester will be sold at that time.

Y. M. C. A. Retreat To Mountains Planned

On the sixth and seventh of October, the Y. M. C. A. and its friends among the men will go to a cabin in Trabuco and spend two days hiking, playing games, playing practicable jokes, and fishing if any fish are available.

The party will leave about noon Saturday and will return some time Sunday evening.

This retreat is not a study retreat, but it is for the purpose of getting acquainted with the new Freshmen who are interested in "Y" work. Therefore the Freshmen especially are asked to come to this retreat.

A small charge will be made to cover expenses, but the fun will be well worth the money.

Invitation To Freshmen

On behalf of the Sophomore class of Santa Ana College, I extend this invitation to the Freshman class to attend the annual Soph-Frosh dance which is to be held at the Ebell Clubhouse in Santa Ana on the night of Saturday, September 29, at 9 p. m. through the courtesy of the Sophomore class.

Willard White, Soph Class Pres.

College Stationery Being Printed Here

Stationery bearing the college seal in scarlet and black will be on sale as soon as it can be printed in the college print shop—probably within a week.

The college Y. W. C. A. will take charge of the sale.

Judging from the popularity of the stationery sold by the Y. W. C. A. last year, the sale will be very successful, according to Mary Bruner, president.

Conditioned English Students Take Exam

The spelling exam for all students who have been conditioned in English 1A and 1B because of spelling deficiencies will be given today at three o'clock in room 201.

All students who have heretofore failed the exam are urged to take the test because it will not be given again for several months.

A list of the words can be secured from Mr. Glenn. There is no fee.

Coming Events

Wednesday, September 19—
First assembly, George Tobias in charge.

Y. M. cabinet meeting at city "Y", 6:30 p. m. charge.

Friday, September 21—

Executive Board Hold First Meet

Head coach Bill Cooke was authorized to purchase athletic supplies at the value of three hundred dollars, as specified in his report, at the first meeting of the executive committee, Monday morning.

Members of the executive committee were requested to have estimates of budgets by the following meeting next Monday. The committeemen were assigned office hours in the Associated Students' office.

Meetings will be held in the future from seven till eight o'clock on Monday mornings, it was decided. Budgets for the Algol and Women's athletics were considered.

Don Women Haters To Observe Sabbath

Scarlet ties and dark glasses will again characterize the Sabbath of the Brotherhood of Bachelors this year, according to Charles Spotts, grand exalted bachelor.

At a meeting of the brotherhood, held last evening, the work of the year was tentatively outlined. The program calls for a monthly meeting, a banquet at the end of each semester, and a dance, termed the Bachelor's Ball, during the second semester. Since many bachelors graduated last June new members will soon be voted upon and admitted. A daily bulletin full of news and humor of the day will be issued daily.

Scarlet And Black Covers Now On Sale

Orders for the scarlet and black tire covers can now be given to Willard White, Leonard Moris, or Homer Humphrey. The price for the tire cover and the painting will be three dollars and fifty cents, and if the tire cover is furnished, the price of the painting will be one dollar and seventy-five cents.

These tire covers are very attractive. The background is scarlet, and the school seal is painted on in black. This makes the seal stand out very distinctly, which is a fine advertisement for Santa Ana junior college.

These covers will also aid in boosting our school at all the football games.

Annual Event Held At Corona Del Mar

Social Chairman Promises A Good Time For Everyone; Urges All To Attend

Students of Santa Ana college will participate in the annual student body picnic to be held at Corona Del Mar Friday, September 21.

Eddie Gerhardt, social chairman, promises a good time and urges every student to attend what is considered the main event of the year.

Committees have been appointed and they are busy at work. Margaret Glenn, Marion Bruner, Felix Garnsey and Homer Humphrey will provide lively games from 3:30 until meal time. As yet, it is not known of what the eats consist, but plenty is assured. Josephine Ball, Lyles McNairy, Merle Youel, Pauline Neddermeyer, and Mary Bruner constitute the committee.

Students possessing student body tickets will be given meal tickets sometime this week. Freshmen and Sophomores who are attending Santa Ana junior college for their first year, and who do not have student body tickets will be admitted free of charge. The old Sophomores who do have tickets will be asked to pay 35¢.

Any student who attended the fall beach party last year will be sure and not miss this good time. All new students who wish to become better acquainted and have an enjoyable evening as well, come to Corona Del Mar Friday, September 21.

Subject A Exam Will Be Given Again Soon

T. H. Glenn, head of the English department, announces that Subject A examination will be given September 22, 1928, at 9 A. M. in Room 201.

This entrance exam in English composition is required of all entering Freshmen.

Only those who have never taken the exam before are eligible to take it on Saturday.

W. A. A. Officers to be Elected At Assembly

Election of officers for the Women's Athletic Association for this semester will take place during the last 15 minutes of the assembly today. The cabinet of last year has nominated one candidate for each office and the meeting will be open for further nominations from the floor before the election takes place.

The ones nominated by the cabinet are: vice-president, Susannah Erbe, Roberta Eley; secretary, Pauline Neddermeyer, Lena Wilson; treasurer, Margaret Glenn, Barb Goodrich.

Hello Day

Hello Day has become a tradition in this school. It is the day when everyone says "hello" to everyone else, regardless of previous acquaintances.

A Hello Day has a certain psychological effect upon students. Many are the people you pass many times during the day that you do not know and yet belong to your institution. It would benefit both you and the other fellow to strike up an acquaintance, even if it never extended beyond the usual "Hi there!"

So much for the benefits of such a day. You will be given your chance to prove them later on.

But the real point we wish to bring up is the time of Hello Day. Why wait until the middle of the semester. Why not have it now when it is most needed.

Despite the fact that the reception and mixer did much to improve the situation, still something else is needed—AND IT IS NEEDED NOW.

This to the school leaders—don't wait until student groups and cliques have been established. Act now to make better the spirit of this college.

Letter-Box

The following communication was received a few days ago:
Mr. Ray Lindman,
Editor of The Don,

Dear Sir:

Will you allow me a little space in the next issue of The Don to express my very great appreciation of the wonderful cooperation and help so many of the students gave the Committee on the Freshman Week program. Without the very valuable help from these students, the week would have been a failure. It is certainly a pleasure to work with such capable and willing students. I remember very distinctly the work of the following students: George Tobias, Edwin Gerhardt, Willard White, Ray Lindman, Harold Watson, Eleanor Turner, Adelaide Mueller, Melva Fletcher, Mary Bruner, Sterling Barnett, Charles Spotts, William Fox, Maurice Guyer, Felix Garnsey, Barbara Goodrich, Ruth Tantlinger, George Butler, Maria Keeler, Lyles McNairy, and Margaret Glenn.

If I have omitted any names, I hope they will forgive me as it is due to a "good forgetter"; they are fully appreciated. I am sure these students have what Mr. Nealey said was the "we" spirit. With such a fine beginning we are assured a most successful year.

Most Sincerely

L. L. Beeman

Who's Who

The Woman's Home Companion! Who hasn't heard of the magazine, but many are the innocent, red-capped freshmen and freshwomen that have not heard of the live original which spends its daylight hours at Santa Ana College.

The original is a tall, gangly, blonde fellow, who wears white cords and brilliant suspenders. He greets all the "new" girls with a cheery hello and a wide grin.

This popular young sophomore has made a name for himself as a major league debater and yell leader. You ought to see him smile when Thelma says, "Oh! Eddie, you're too funny for words."

VACATIONS

George Tobias, Ray Lindman, Red Guyer, Lawrence Hogue, and Curtis Van Syoc rattled to various points in the east in a Cheverollet touring during the vacation.

Willard White, Ted Cook, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Fisk journeyed to Seattle, Washington.

Lena May Willsey, Eleanor Turner, Barbara Goodrich, and Hi-Hat Jessup attended the Y. W. C. A. conference at Asilomar last June.

Jane Stewart has just returned from Arizona where she has spent the last several months.

The tan which Louise Ward has acquired is the result of many days spent at the beach.

Addie Mueller sold safety-pins and buttons at one of the large stores in Orange.

Two of our students showed their super-human desire for knowledge by going to school this summer. Louise Griset attended school in San Diego, and Ruth Tantlinger in Laguna.

Sterling Barnett worked at Laguna as a carpenter this summer.

Margaret Glenn spent her summer gaining weight at Asilomar.

Homer Humphrey spent most of his vacation in Arizona.

Julie Bingham went to Hawaii.

Lawrence Hogue attended the Christian Endeavor Convention at Pittsburgh.

While at New York, Ray Lindman witnessed "The Strange Interlude" by Eugene O'Neil. The performance lasted six hours.

A Frosh's Letter
To Her Diary

Wednesday, September 5

Dear little diary:

Well, it happened today. I'm so thrilled. I started my first day of COLLEGE. Just think, I'm actually going to college. Of course, this was just the first Freshman Day, but it was real junior college. Oh no, I forgot. We are supposed to call it Santa Ana college, not junior college. Anyway, I went. After looking around the hall at the mob (it was mob) of other Freshies, I went into a big room. Mr. Hammond, the college president, told us how glad he was to see us (I bet he was), and then he introduced the faculty. They looked like a harmless bunch, but they can't fool me. After that we had some singing and then the student body—no I mean the associated student's president was introduced. You see this is college and they don't call it a student body here, but associated students instead. And say—the president, George—somebody, sure is cute. I've got my eye on him all right, and don't you tell anybody.

Thursday, September 6

Dear Diary:

Well, we had another day of it today. J. C.—I mean college really isn't so bad. We had some more speeches and some singing and yells today. Mr. Nealey speeched to us about ethics, what ever that is. He gave us a definition, but I've forgotten it. Then Capt. Russel (he's a "sure nuff" aviator, but doesn't look it) told us how college is different than high school. I guess we're going to work pretty hard here according to what he says. I could hear all the other Freshies groaning at the thoughts of it, but maybe we'll live through it. Then Mr. Fisk, the dean (he's kinda cute too) told us about the courses and the grades we're going to get, I mean not get. That is I mean the A's and B's. Gee if I get D's I'll do dandy according to the way he talked. He kinda scared me, but I'm getting over it now. You see they told us about how grown up we are now. Just think! I'm not a girl any longer. I'm a woman, so I mustn't get scared anymore.

We had a free luncheon at noon today. It was like most things that are free—a fake. They hid a microscopic piece of ham between two pieces of bread and then had the nerve to call it a sandwich.

Friday, September 7

My Diary:

Well, this was the last day, that is the last Freshman Day. I'm a "sure nuff" college Frosh now. I've got a little red book they call the "Frosh Bible" and a cute little red cap with a black bill on it, only it's a fake because it doesn't shade your eyes. We Freshies are supposed to carry our bibles all the time, and wear our caps. I'm sure going to wear my cap. Those sops are so jealous of us. They don't know what to do. We had a lot more introducing and then they tried to make speeches. We had some songs and yells, and say that freshie yell leader sure is a cute one. I'd keep my eyes on him if I didn't already have them on the president. I found out his other name. It is Tobias. George Tobias, that's my new man but he doesn't know it yet.

We elected class officers today,

Campus Chatter

Emmet Mellott, that heart breaker from Garden Grove has been seen strolling the campus.

Jack Clark was heard to remark that he intended to meet the faculty at Balboa Friday night. Evidently he thought better, for he appeared at the Hut to put in a good word for himself.

Anyone desiring a new vocabulary should attend the used book sale when students are informed that the psychology and trig. books have been changed since last year.

Someone was heard to remark that Art Gross could certainly keep up a good conversation. You have heard these one-sided conversations, have you not?

What's this we hear about Ruth Juhlen copying all "cute" dresses on the campus? Some wardrobe she'll have.

Something is surely missing around college now. Have you noticed that the beautiful hedges are gone. Anyway "the buildings look taller."

A certain freshman girl, with long curly hair, had better put her "beanie" on and keep it on when told to do so by a sophomore.

Gus Lenain wishes to announce that his name is not Gus LEMON.

Poor Ray! He'll surely be rushed now. What do you say girls? He had better leave his new Ford coupe at home.

This is to correct the rumor that Art Gross is not the son of Milt Gross the author. Art may be funny but not that bad.

A BIT OF PHILOSOPHY

By Helen Ban

'Tis good to see the sun a shining
Especially after 'tis been raining,
Because the lily and the daffodil
Impart a sweeter fragrance, still.

When all the world is full of gladness
Why wear a face of dreary sadness?
Drive care away, and smile with me.
Smile with me, come, smile with me.

'Tis good to see somebody smiling
Because a smile will always win
One seems to be just really living
When one is gladly smiling!

So, let us smile and let us sing,
That every day may pass to bring
Another to our train of smiles,
Increasing kindness through these smiles!

too. I was so disappointed. I haven't gotten over it yet. Nobody nominated me for president or anything. I just can't feature it.

I must not forget to tell you about the dinner we had today. It was a real dinner and not a lunch. I think they must have felt ashamed of themselves for what they fed us yesterday. Anyway, they gave us a real dinner today and it was free, too. If they fed us all the time college isn't going to be at all bad.

Miss Mary Batten, New Instructor In College Music Department

Pomona College Graduate, Also Professional Vocalist And Pianist

The music department of the Santa Ana junior college has been greatly augmented this year by the addition to its personnel of versatile and well trained musician, Miss Mary Batten, B. A.

Again Pomona College where Miss Batten's father is business manager, has been the Alma Mater for a college faculty member's academical preparation. However, a college course in the form of an after thought on Miss Batten's past, for it was not until after several years concentrated musical training, and professional work that our new faculty member returned to Claremont, which had been her home where, after four years she obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree.

The students in her college class, history and appreciation 3A are quite charmed by this young woman who promises to help make music a vital factor in the junior college activities.

school years, and shifted her attention to this field, which soon occupied a great part of her time. Estelle Heart Dreyfus, Los Angeles artist teacher has been Miss Batten's vocal coach intermittently since that time. Mrs. Dreyfus is particularly an exponent of folk songs and has collected many hitherto unwritten Spanish ones. The Song of the Volga Boatmen was first introduced into this country by Mrs. Dreyfus. Walter Allen, Southern California organist and teacher has been Miss Batten's instructor in harmony and composition.

In Chicago Miss Batten received further professional training following which she spent a year on the Lyceum traveling in the East and South as a member of a girls' quartet. She taught piano in Santa Barbara for two years before returning to Pomona.

Miss Batten began the study of the piano at an early age and continued for fourteen years. Most of this training was under Theo. Becker, prominent Los Angeles pedagogue. Being possessed of a lyric soprano voice, she became interested in vocal toward the end of her high

Beware

All ye knock-kneed, scrawny, insignificant, freshman girls, hear ye, and HEED this proclamation. Ye poor excuses for green tomato worms, see to it that ye do not allow thy wormy lower extremities to carry ye near that soft and comfortable reclining place known as the Settee in the Y. W. C. A. Hut. Be exceedingly vigilant that ye do not presume to climb upon its spacious portions, nor even to lean any piece of thy weary, crumbling bones against this throne intended for the divine and goddess-like sophomore women.

Now, ye little sweet, well-meaning lower forms of life, this proclamation is intended for your guidance and help; not for the wounding of your softened and immature feelings. Little helpless creatures that ye be, we tender-hearted goddesses could scarcely desire to harm ye; but only to protect ye.

Therefore, HEED YE this warning and all shall be well with ye. Remember ye that the Day of Judgment approaches. All ye violators of the law, hear ye and tremble! For when the Court of Judgment shall sit at the first council of the Young Women's Christian Association, then shall punishment be meted out to all ye whose names appear on the criminal records suspended from the mantel in the hut. Yet starred criminals, tremble ye!

We the Sophomore Women of Santa Ana junior college do publish and declare this proclamation on the nineteenth day of September of the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight whereof we do set our hand and fix our seal.

First Social Events Prove Successful

The success of the past two social events shows that Santa Ana junior college students have entered into the social life of the institution whole-heartedly.

The faculty is to be congratulated upon the way they received the student body at the reception last Friday evening. Two hundred members of the faculty and student body attended the initial social event of the year, and enjoyed the splendid program, reception, and refreshments.

On Monday evening the student body frolicked in the gym at the annual Y. M. and Y. W. mixer. Peppy games, refreshments, and a general atmosphere of informality kept the students in a hilarious mood.

The affair, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Tessmann, Mr. Newcomer and Mr. Beeman, was in charge of Mary Bruner, Sterling Barnett and George Tobias.

Clothing, Shelter Courses Offered

Courses in clothing and shelter are being offered to women of Santa Ana junior college this year, under the supervision of Miss Myrtle Hurt.

Clothing includes the making of garments, the studying of commercial patterns, the drafting from measurements, alteration of patterns, and the use of a machine with all attachments. Tailoring is included in the second semester's work.

Classes in this course are conducted on Monday and Thursday from two until five. A two dollar fee is charged for the course.

The course in shelter, includes house planning, interior decorating, and trips to local homes and stores for the purpose of studying drapes, pillows, lamp shades, wall hangings. This class meets Wednesday afternoon from two until five. A one dollar tuition fee is assessed.

These studies are fine home making courses and any women interested is urged to register for these classes as soon as possible.

Last Year Feature Writer On Don Staff Now Society Editor

Formerly a member of the Don Staff, Miss Dorothy Clarkson, who graduated from Santa Ana junior college last year, is now society editor of the Santa Ana Times.

Miss Clarkson, who has always been noted among her friends and schoolmates for her writing ability, declares that she finds the work fascinating.

"To my experience on the Don Staff, I owe quite a bit," said Miss Clarkson, "for it was there I learned how to do things for myself, because I couldn't get anyone else to do them for me."

Dons Lose Bill Middlestedt

Ex-Long Beach Star Is Made Flattering Offer; Leaves For Washington State University"Expect Hard Fight"—Cook

Anyone observing the pall of gloom that overhangs the general vicinity of the J. C. team room and Coach Cook's office and who is not aware of the facts will hereby become enlightened. It seems that over the past week-end some enemy of the school in the form of a scout from the University of Washington came down and lured Bill Middlestedt away from our midst. The methods used are not known but it suffices that Bill sailed for the Husky's hang-out last Sunday night. No wonder the heiness of the atmosphere in and around the gym—boys side!

"The departure of Middlestedt leaves a big hole that is going to be hard to fill for he was a natural team leader and field general," said Coach Cook. "With Beatty ineligible for football it leaves the team with no experienced letterman for the position of quarterback. At present I have four possibilities for the berth—Red Guyer, Stanley Norton, George Preble and Jack Blakeney. The first two are second year men here and the latter two came to us from Santa Ana high, Blakeney being the captain of the high school team last season. I don't know just what I'll do right now but in all probability will try each of the men

Girl's Tennis And
Swimming Teams
Start Next Week

Candidates for the tennis and swimming teams will meet for the first time next Monday and Tuesday. Miss Leck wil coach these sports and hopes to see a large turnout for these first meetings.

Girls interested in tennis will meet in the corrective room Monday, September 24, at 3:30 o'clock, and all girls interested in this sport are urged to be present.

At the same place and time the following afternoon those interested in making the swimming team are to meet. Girls are also urged to be present at this meeting if they are interested in swimming.

Girl Basketeers
To Meet Tonight

Teday is the day, 3 o'clock is the time. In the gym is the place. Basketball is the game.

Tonight the first meeting of the aspirants for the 1928 basketball teams will take place. Mrs. Foote is expecting a large turnout from both the Sophomore and Freshmen classes, which means that all girls interested in this sport are expected out.

As previously stated, practice will be held every Monday and Wednesday afternoons. A good season is looked forward to and all girls interested in basketball are urged to come and partake of the good times in store.

named, and what others I deem fit, at the position and use the best ones in that position regularly."

This departure of Middlestedt comes at a time when hope was running high high for a championship team this year. However, with the wealth of material that Coach Cook has at his command doubtless some man will be found who can capably fill the shoes thus left vacant.

Football Manager
Not Yet Chosen

No choice has been made as yet for football manager for the ensuing season, according to Lyles McNairy, commissioner of athletics. In all probability the decision will not be made known until just before the Chaffey game, September 22.

The two Freshmen interested in the tryout are Louis Bomoff of Anaheim and Robert Chapman of Tustin. They have been painting headgear and numbering the suits. The decision will be based upon the spirit of the individual as well as his ability.

"We are investigating the candidates and our decision will be based wholly upon the individual merits," said Coach Cook. "We have no particular one in mind but will announce Friday night the decision of Commissioner McNairy and myself regarding the matter."

The position of manager entails taking care of supplies, looking after the eligibility records, answering all correspondence and doing all work that may arise.

SWIMMING TENNIS
POPULAR CLASSES

Tennis and swimming are proving to be the most popular of the classes in men's physical education, according to reports from the gymnasium. Coach Foote who has charge of the tennis class and of the heavy apparatus, reports thirty-three men enrolled in the former and fourteen in the latter. According to these figures this is an increase for the tennis and a slight decrease for the apparatus class. Many in the tennis class are second year men who studied under Mr. Cooke last year and who are using this opportunity to keep up the good work. Undoubtedly the tennis team this year will be a strong contender for championship honors.

Coach Foote will have, in addition to the two classes mentioned above, full charge of the basketball for the college. He is taking Mr. Scott's place due to pressure of work and the fact that Mr. Scott is going to teach a class in elements of physical education. This latter is an entirely new course offered here and promises to be both interesting and educational.

Swimming has not gotten underway yet due to the fact that the pool is under repair at present, but rumor has it that the class will be even larger than the one last year. If things go according to schedule the would-be mermen will be disporting themselves in the pool the latter part of this week. Coach "Bill" Cook will have charge of this class again this year and those who learned all the strokes, dives and methods of life-saving from him last year know how competent he is and also how cold the water was on some of the mornings, particularly Tuesdays. The class this year is scheduled for an hour later than formerly, which may mean warmer water to swim in and then again it may not, according to how the officials of the gymnasium feel about the water. Actual figures of the attendance of this class are not available at present due to the class not meeting regularly.

Boxing and wrestling are also being taught this year and present indications point to an average class in this also. Coach "Bill" Cook will also have charge of this.

Social dancing for men not proficient in the art is offered again but figures are not available as to the number that will in time be attending the class. This is a non-credit course but is offered to those who wish to learn to dance. Mrs. Foote will have charge of it again.

With a larger enrollment this year than previously and a large percentage of the college men out for football and prospects of a good showing in the other sports, the future looks mighty rosy for a very successful athletic season.

With the first game of the season on deck for Saturday afternoon, football practice is going forward with a bang. Of course the departure of Bill Middlestedt has changed the plans considerably and Coach Cook was not able to start scrimage at the first of the week as he had intended. Monday and Tuesday were given over to trying out different men at the skipper's position and giving instruction in plays.

Chaffey this year is not the weakest team in the world and Santa Ana is not going to have an easy time of it. Though the general opinion seems to be that the Dons will defeat the Chaffey team, it is thought that the game should be hotly contested and only a few points margin to the victors.

No definite information is available for the present concerning the starting lineup for the game and according to advices received from Coach Cook, the men who will start in the game are the men who show the greatest amount of fight and improvement in the few days between now and Friday night.

With the game to be held at Chaffey again this year, it is hoped that sufficient students will be interested enough in the first showing of the team to make the trip over and root for them. As we have said, though this game may not be a league game and all that it promises to be a hard fought one and undoubtedly will be very interesting.
